

Goethe-Institut Children and Young Adult Literature Portal

www.goethe.de/kinder-jugendbuch

This portal provides concise information at a single location on authors writing in German for children and teens as well as illustrators of children's books in the second half of the 20th century. It is primarily intended for users involved in the popularisation or dissemination of German literature abroad.

A jury of experts selected 50 authors of children's and young people's books and 20 illustrators. They are each introduced with a capsule biography and a selection of their works. The user can search more than 500 available titles by subject and genre.

There are three language versions of the portal :German, English and Arabic. Further translations are planned.

The books can be searched by author/illustrator, theme, genre and title.

The authors and illustrators are introduced with a capsule biography and a selection of their works.
